

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A tracking control method measures an optimum offset by measuring a light beam irradiation state of a light beam while offsetting a tracking
5 target position of the light beam on a recording medium so that an optimum light beam irradiation state is obtained at the tracking target position, and carries out a tracking control by setting the measured optimum offset.

10

15

20

25

30

35